II. PROTECTIVE ORDER

- A. All documents filed with the Court or other information including deposition testimony or other discovery obtained in conjunction with this action, or in any related action, shall be deemed confidential and subject to this protective order.
- B. Any document filed with the Court which refers to a minor involved in the underlying events giving rise to this Action shall not use the full name of that minor but rather shall refer to that minor by his or her first initial only. In the event where more than one minor shares the same first initial, the minors sharing the same initial shall be designated by his or her first initial and a chronological number. For example, if minors Alex and Aaron are involved, Alex would be A-1 and Aaron would be A-2.
- C. The parties shall lodge (not file) with the Court a document containing the full name of the minor who was referred to in court filed documents by initial only. This lodged document shall refer to the minor by both full name and initial so the Court can easily identify the minor referred to in the publicly filed documents.
- D. The documents, information, and designated deposition testimony generated in this Action shall be used by the person to whom it is disclosed solely for the purpose of this action, the recipient shall not disseminate the information to anyone other than the client, members of the law firm representing the client, and any expert retained to testify in this lawsuit except pursuant to the terms of this order, or otherwise, as the Court may direct. Said documents, information, and designated deposition testimony actually generated in this action shall not be used for any business or other purpose separate from this lawsuit unless agreed to in writing by all parties to this action, or
